Course Connection to Program Portfolio (Degree-Seeking Students):

A completed, approved, e-portfolio is a requirement for graduation. It is a visual showcase of your work that demonstrates professional growth, achievement, and competence in the field of counseling. The portfolio is used to document your philosophy of education and central concepts of student development. Your portfolio must include a syllabus and the key assignment from this course.

Method of Instruction:

Course methodology is web-based. For assistance with technical questions, contact helpdesk@csc.edu or 308-432-6311. This course consists of individual participation through weekly assignments, collaborative discussions, and exams organized. Each week typically begins at 1:00 AM Mountain Time, Monday, and closes 10 PM Mountain Time, Sunday. The notable exception is the final week of class when all assignments close at 5pm Mountain Time, Friday. All dates and assignments can be found in the course schedule.

Course Requirements:

It is intended that all courses at the graduate level will require greater intellectual effort, more independence in reading and investigation, and more constructive thinking than undergraduate levels of instruction. Requirements include active participation, and completion of all assigned work on time. Unless otherwise indicated, all written assignments must follow APA formatting guidelines: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/1/> Each weekly activity includes: MindTap assignments, forums, readings, and exams.

1. Forums: Each week you will have many opportunities to share your ideas. I will provide the topic and you will provide amazing reflection, insight, and discussion. Please see rubric at the end of this syllabus.
 - A. A new forum will be available Monday through Sunday of each week. To receive full points, you must participate with at least 1 original post and 2 replies, 3 of the 7 days the forum is open. I will not grade a post/reply when submitted after the forum closes.
 - B. You MUST read most of your classmates replies and posts. Points will be subtracted if you read less than 50%.
 - C. Each post must be a minimum of 250 words, and each reply must be a minimum of 200 words. Additional posts and replies over the minimum can be any length. I - recommend you NOT rely on MSWord's word count. It tends to result in a lower count than CSC Online.

- D. The faculty role is as an observer and facilitator. I will read and participate in the discussion as appropriate.
 - E. Your first forum is the CSC Online Profile. Please upload a photo of yourself! Not a photo of your family, or favorite park, or pet. The purpose of the photo is so that we can recognize each other's face. You will not write any posts for this particular forum.
 - F. Please also take the time to review the Discussion Forum Rubric found linked to your Course Home Page.
2. Chapter Quizzes: You will complete chapter quizzes due at the end of each week. The exams are timed so be certain you have set aside enough time to complete the exam prior to beginning. Using the save button in your exam does NOT stop the clock. You will have only 1 opportunity to submit each exam. To access exams please choose Tests & Quizzes in the left-hand menu on your course home page or from your weekly lessons.
 3. Classroom Lesson Plans: Use the ASCA lesson plan template to create a lesson plan in each of the three domains---academic, college-career and social emotional learning. You can get ideas from current school counseling curriculums or from other online resources. However, you should write your own lesson plans. Make sure your lesson plans address differences in learning styles, cultural differences, ages, or ability status of the students to be more inclusive. Make sure your lesson plans show evidence of the following:
 - A. Provides individual and group counseling and classroom guidance to promote the academic, career, and/or personal/social development of students.
 - B. Understands the ways in which educational policies, programs and practices can be developed, adapted and modified to be culturally congruent with the needs of students and their families.
 - C. Understands multicultural counseling issues, as well as the impact of ability levels, stereotyping, family, socioeconomic status, gender and sexual identity and their effects on student achievement.
 - D. Understands the influence of multiple factors (e.g., abuse, violence, eating disorders, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, childhood depression) that may affect the personal, social, and academic functioning of students.
 - E. Understands curriculum design, lesson plan development, classroom management strategies, and differentiated instructional strategies for teaching counseling and guidance related material.
 4. Counseling Program Assessment Paper: Each student will spend at least 4 hours shadowing a professional school counselor. Using ASCA's School Counseling Assessment form, assess strengths and weaknesses of the current school counseling program, and determine if the school is "RAMP-Ready." Also, try to consider conditions/possibilities external to the school that may provide opportunities or threats to improving the program. Students must interview at least the school counselor, but other sources of data include self-observation, the school website, and interviews with staff, administrators, or other stakeholders. You will turn in the program assessment form and a reflection paper detailing the areas of strength, weakness, opportunities, and threats of the comprehensive school counseling program.

5. Comprehensive School Counseling Program: A good school counseling program should be built around the tenets of the American School Counselors Association (ASCA) National Model. The model comprises of four components: foundation, management, delivery, and accountability. You will develop a comprehensive counseling program including:
- F. A sample of various interventions,
 - G. your job description,
 - H. copies of all schedules (weekly, monthly, yearly),
 - I. a chart of how your time is spent,
 - J. A description of your school including size and make-up of student population and staff (demographics),
 - K. and how you will set up your office.
 - L. Discuss how you will incorporate the components of the ASCA National Model Program into your plan and how your program may differ from this guide. This assignment is to be of practical use to you. The purpose of the exercise is to demonstrate your understanding of what constitutes the necessary components for a viable school-counseling program.

These might include strained relationships, anxiety, high levels of stress, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, or loss of motivation. CSC Health Services is here to help with these or other issues you may experience. You can learn about the free, confidential mental health services available on campus at <https://www.csc.edu/healthserv/counseling/> or by calling (308) 432-6232 or visiting Crites Hall 343. Part 3: Grading Policy

Graded Course Activities and Letter Grade Assignment

As graduate students, you will be expected to manage your time so that you can make the most of the student learning process and deliver your course assignments by the agreed-upon due-dates. The issue of time-management is therefore crucial to your successful completion of any assignments in this class. Course assignments are weighted accordingly. To find out more about each of the assignments listed below, complete details can be found in the CSC Online site associated with this course.

Letter Grade	Point Percentage
A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	0-59

Assignment	Percentage of Course Grade
Classroom Lesson Plans	15
Counseling Program Assessment Paper	25
Comprehensive School Counseling Program	30

Assignment	Percentage of Course Grade
Chapter Quizzes	15
Forums	15
Total	100

Grades will be based on a weighted scale, with final grades determined by the following percentages:

Late Work Policy: I do not accept late submissions for assignments, forums or exams. Late work due to extreme emergency conditions will be considered on an individual basis with supportive documentation such as a doctor's note or obituary. You must contact the instructor in a timely manner to determine if work is acceptable and if you will be granted a late exception. It is the student's responsibility to check the CSC online grade book to determine whether the instructor has graded assignments.

Viewing Grades in CSC Online: I will update grades in Cengage MindTap each time a grading session has been completed—typically 1-week following the completion of an activity.

Part 4: Course & Institution Policies

Student Behavior:

Academic Honesty: Students are encouraged and expected, with the assistance of the faculty, to conduct themselves in conformity with the highest standards with regard to academic honesty. Violation of college, state, or federal standards with regard to plagiarism, cheating, or falsification of official records will not be tolerated. Students violating such standards will be advised and disciplined. Violations of these standards may result in course failure, suspension, or dismissal from the college. Students are encouraged to seek the advice of instructors as to the proper procedures to avoid such violations.

The following acts are examples of academic dishonesty:

1. Cheating – intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise.
2. Fabrication – intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
3. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty – intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another in an act of academic dishonesty.
4. Plagiarism – appropriating or imitating language, ideas, and thoughts of another author, representing them as one's own original work. The following acts are examples of plagiarism:
 1. Submitting an assignment that someone else has written and claiming the work as one's own.

2. Submitting an assignment that contains sections, paragraphs, sentences or key phrases that someone else has written without appropriately documenting the source(s) for each portion of the assignment not written by the student submitting the assignment.
3. Submitting an assignment that contains paraphrased ideas from another source, published or unpublished, without appropriately documenting the source for each paraphrase. (Changing around a few words in a sentence from the source is not sufficient to avoid plagiarism.)

Note:

- “Someone else” in the three statements above may refer to a published author, another student, an internet source, or any person other than the student claiming credit for the assignment. If an individual is unsure in how to document sources used within an assignment, they are encouraged to ask their professor or the reference librarian for assistance.
- Appropriation or imitating language, ideas, and thoughts of another author and representing them as one’s own original work is not tolerated. I will use Turn-it-In software to determine originality of your work. The first instance of plagiarism will result in failure of the assignment while more than one instance will result in failure of the course.
- View the Academic Honesty Policy on CSC’s Policy Website (<https://app.policyiq.com/ChadronStateCollege/Content/View/3419?Key=c320bad9-cae1-4820-bac1-ec7a3b6d69ba>)

Attendance/Participation Policy: The College assumes that students will seek to profit from the instructional program and will recognize the importance of attending every class meeting of courses for which credit is expected. Responsibility for notifying faculty of absences, and for arranging potential make-up, rests with the students. In courses that utilize an online format, students are expected to participate in an appropriate and frequent manner, as determined by course instructor. View the Class Attendance and/or Participation Policy on CSC’s Policy Website (<https://app.policyiq.com/ChadronStateCollege/Content/View/3432?Key=c320bad9-cae1-4820-bac1-ec7a3b6d69ba>)

1. Internet Access: In the case of a conference, work trip, or family vacation, it is the student’s responsibility to make arrangements for Internet access. Therefore, online attendance in the course is expected.
2. On Handling Technical Issues: Our online learning environment is dependent on technology -- sort of like those taking a face-to-face class needing a car or some other means of transportation (or mobility) to get to class. I must also say that humans control technology and we can expect to be able to work through system glitches and failures quickly. Please see On Handling Technical Issues in CSC Online course resources. Please contact helpdesk@csc.edu or 308-432-6311 for assistance should you if you have any additional technical questions.
3. Communication/Email Etiquette: Please contact me via kwoods@csc.edu for all questions and concerns regarding this course. I am not always in my office and voice messages will not elicit a speedy reply. Though I typically respond quickly, please allow up to 24 hours for a reply. Note, I may not be able to respond to an email on the day of, or hours before, an assignment is due or on weekends. Thus, please begin your assignments early. Always remember when writing professionally to begin with a salutation, provide course information, and a signature. It is important that you address people with the proper title. When you address professors with an earned doctorate (PhD or EdD), please address them with their academic title. All of the Counseling Program professors at CSC should be addressed with the title Dr. or Professor, rather than Ms, Miss, Mrs, or their first names. Individual professors may not mind if you address them by first name, however, never assume this to be the case. Should you not receive a response to your email, check to ensure that you have met all the above expectations as I may not respond to emails resembling an informal text message. Finally, check your official CSC Eagle email account often as all campus communications are sent to your Eagle mail.

4. Confidentiality: This course, like other courses in the Counseling Program, requires students maintain absolute confidentiality regarding all personal material revealed in class. Any breach of confidentiality will be considered a serious ethical and academic violation. If one is found to violate confidentiality the student's ability to continue the program will be in jeopardy.

Dispositional Standards: Please see the CSC Counseling Website and Counseling Student Handbook regarding dispositional standards. The standards address a student's affective attributes and disposition to be a counselor. A corresponding Professional Dispositional Standards Rubric provides further guidance. A student's ability to meet the Dispositional Standards is continually reviewed by, and subject to, the academic judgment of campus faculty, staff, and administration.

Civility and Netiquette: Civil behavior enhances the learning environment and is expected at all times. The academic environment welcomes a difference of opinion, discourse, and debate within a civil environment. All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all communications (including email messages, discussion, and chats). You may find these guidelines helpful:

1. Clearly label posts and emails with a relevant subject heading.
2. Use capital letters sparingly. THEY LOOK LIKE SHOUTING.
3. Forward emails only with a writer's permission.
4. Be considerate of others' feelings and use language carefully.
5. Cite all quotations, references, and sources.
6. Use humor carefully. It is hard to "read" tone; sometimes humor can be misread as criticism or personal attack. Feel free to use emoticons to let others know you are being humorous.
7. Use complete sentences and Standard English grammar to compose posts. Write in proper paragraphs. Review work before submitting it.

Writing Style Requirements for All Papers:

1. It is the student's responsibility to submit work in the format required by the class (MSWord, PDF) or another method (cut and paste; rich text format, etc.). CSC cannot open Word Perfect.
2. When writing a thesis, cite all resources using APA Style in both the text of your paper and on a separate reference page (see the APA manual or the APA style guide at <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/> ; include cover page, reference page, page numbers and headers; paper should be double spaced with 1-inch margins; Use only readable fonts such as Verdana, Times New Roman, Arial, or Courier in 12 point only;
3. Proofread everything you write, checking for grammar and spelling (have someone else read your work).
4. See Criteria for Graduate Level Writing in CSC Online Course Resources.
5. Please note that written assignments for this course are evaluated according to the objective standards of Formal English usage. If the phrase "Formal English" is unfamiliar, please become familiar with it, immediately, before the first written assignment is submitted. Here are a few links to help you get started:

Assignment Instructions/Rubrics: _____

Discussion Forum Rubric

This course works well when everyone is involved in discussing the material. Your participation throughout the week in each of the forums is essential. Your grade will be based on how much you say and how well it contributes to the work of the class, as well as total number of days you post in the forum, minimum word counts, and percent of total posts/replies read. Students are expected to offer comments, questions, and replies to the discussion questions that have been posed for each week as well as to classmate postings. The faculty role is as an observer and facilitator. I will read and participate in the discussion as appropriate.

I grade each of the discussion forums separately on a 4-point scale. Discussion postings that meet all criteria for a score level will receive the highest points possible at that level. Participation in discussion activities can only be accepted for grade by the date on the discussion posting. For example, you may have met all word counts for 3 entries, but entered them only on 2 different days. This will result in 2-points. To be clear, to earn full points each week you must at a minimum participate:

- Day 1-enter an original post that meets minimum word-count of 250 words,
- Day 2-enter a reply that meets minimum word-count of 200 words,
- Day 3-enter a reply that meets minimum word-count of 200 words,
- Read at least 50% of classmates entries.

4 Points: Have met ALL minimum expectations:

Students earning 4-points for discussion activities have participated 3 or more times on at least 3 separate days in the week's forum (with at least 1 post and 2 replies), met the minimum word count requirements (each post must be a minimum of 250 words, and each reply must be a minimum of 200 words), read a minimum of 50% of your classmates entries, and posted outstanding information.

Discussion postings:

- are made in time for others to read and respond
- deliver information that is full of thought, insight, and analysis
- make connections to previous or current content or to real-life situations
- contain rich and fully developed new ideas, connections, or applications
- provide outside resources supporting your ideas.
- posted a minimum of 3 days over the week, meeting word counts.
- meet the minimum word count requirements.
- read at least 50% of classmates entries.

3 Points: Have met 3, but not all, of the following expectations:

- are made in time for others to read and respond
